

MENTOR QUESTIONS

1. Why do you want to be a mentor?
2. What qualities do you think a good mentor should have?
3. How will you balance mentoring with your academic responsibilities?
4. If a student is struggling academically, how would you help them?
5. What would you do if a student shares a personal or emotional problem with you?
6. How would you handle a student who is not comfortable opening up?
7. How would you support a first-year student dealing with homesickness?
8. How will you ensure that students feel comfortable reaching out to you?
9. What would you do if a student is facing peer pressure or bullying?
10. How would you help a student who is struggling with time management?
11. What do you think are the most common challenges faced by first-year students?
12. How will you differentiate between mentoring and counseling?
13. How would you handle a situation where a student is facing a serious mental health issue?
14. What if a student approaches you with a problem but requests you not to tell anyone, even when professional intervention is needed?
15. How would you resolve conflicts between students in your mentee group?
16. Can you share an experience where you helped someone facing difficulties?
17. What are some initiatives you would like to introduce as a mentor?
18. If a mentee approaches you for academic help in a subject you're not familiar with, how would you assist?
19. How would you assist a first-year student who is feeling overwhelmed with extracurricular activities and academics?
20. What would you do if a mentee starts skipping classes and seems disinterested in studies?
21. What personal qualities make you a good mentor?
22. How will you ensure that your mentees feel comfortable sharing their concerns with you?
23. How would you guide a student who is too shy or hesitant to express their struggles?
24. If a mentee starts showing signs of depression or severe anxiety, how would you handle it?
25. How would you assist a student struggling with loneliness and social isolation?
26. How would you handle a situation where your mentee is being bullied or harassed?
27. What advice would you give a mentee struggling with balancing academics and extracurricular activities?
28. How would you help a mentee who is constantly procrastinating on assignments?
29. What would you do if a mentee shares a personal problem but requests complete confidentiality?
30. How will you ensure you don't overstep boundaries while mentoring?
31. How would you handle a situation where your mentee starts depending on you for every decision?